Mrs. Effie Manley
Dear Madam:

I received your letter and am all ways glad to hear from you. Now about changing of the date of June 30th, it will be perfectly all right with me, if every body else is satisfied. I will get in touch with Ed Gotlieb at once.

I will try to arraignge this date, you had better write him also, the night game at Atlantic City. The date of the 29th will be all right. I am sorry Stone went to Mexico. I am short on out fielders my self, and I dont want to trade Blot. I will work with you in every way possible, this year. I hope we all can some money and have a better understanding.

I remain,

Thos T Wilson
